

THE TURF.

CLOSING DAY'S RACES AT BENNING'S.

The Winners Yesterday Were Captain Wagener, Pall Mall, San Jose, Iceberg, Jim Murphy, and Manhattan.

It was a good day for heavily-backed horses at Benning's yesterday, the favorites winning four out of the six events, and well-backed second choice horses getting the other two events. There was a good crowd out, though not so large as on the preceding days of the meeting. The number of ladies on the grand stand was not as large as on previous days, but a fair "Congressional counting" was present. Some fine turn-outs occupied the inner field. Betting was brisk and lively, and the events were in doubt in almost every instance until the last.

The races were those scheduled for Friday, wet weather having caused their postponement. The weather was clear and cool and the track in safe condition, but too heavy to be fast. The time made by the horses, however, is considered excellent, all things taken into account.

First race—Purse, $500, divided, for two-year-olds; winners in this meeting to carry five pounds extra; five furlongs. Capt. Wagener was the favorite, with the betting 3 to 1 and 5 to 1 against Coriolanus and Best Boy. Coriolanus got much the best of the start, with Capt. Wagener well in the rear; Coriolanus and Cerise colt led until into the stretch, by which time Capt. Wagener had run out of the track, and then captured first place, and won by six lengths. Coriolanus second, Cerise colt third. Sarah Hall, Sequence colt, Hollens, and Best Boy also ran. Time, 1:05. Mutuels paid $3.80.

Second race—Purse $500, divided, for three-year-olds; one mile. Pall Mall and Little Ella seemed to be the only ones in the second race for one mile, the former being thought in better condition and having slightly the advantage in the betting at even money to 7 to 5 for Little Ella. Pall Mall made the pace and led until the half, when Little Ella momentarily got the lead, Roach on the Pall Mall watching her going. The result satisfied him, for he kept Pall Mall at her side until a hundred yards from the wire, when he sent his mount away and won by a scant length, Little Ella second, Infatuation third. Sphist and Bias also ran. Time, 1:48. Mutuels paid $4.35.

Third race—Six furlongs dash; purse $500, divided. There was a good field of pretty evenly matched starters, though betters looked upon Nina W. or Vivid as pretty sure to win, the odds being 7 to 5 on them, with Fountain and San Jose trailing along at 7 to 1 each. San Jose got decidedly the better of the poor start, the favorites being down in the ruck. San Jose was never headed, and won by a length, with Nina W. second, and Vivid third. Fountain, Fostenia, Dave S., Facial B., and Roundabout also ran. Time, 1:18. Mutuels paid $4.85.

Fourth race—Handicap purse $500, divided; 1 1/16 miles. Carrie G. was the favorite, with Iceberg and Pelham well up in the estimation of horsemen, and My Owl the outsider. Carrie G. made the running at the start, and had a length lead, until the half, when Pelham went forward, running like an easy winner. They came into the stretch in this order: Pelham, two lengths ahead of Carrie G., lapped by Iceberg. Iceberg then showed a burst of his old-time speed, and won a fine race by three-quarters of a length, Carrie G. second, Pelham showing no speed at the close. My Owl also ran. Time, 1:53. Mutuels paid $5.50.

Fifth race—Purse, $500, $50 to second horse; one mile. This was the gentlemen riders' race, and Jim Murphy was a strong favorite with Doehant second choice. Sandy Brown led at the start, but King Idler soon took the lead and kept it until near home, when, through poor riding on the part of Mr. Draner, Jim Murphy won by a half length, King Idler second, Doehant third. Time, 1:53. Mutuels paid $4.95.

Sixth race—Purse $500, divided; selling race, with weight allowances below $2,000, six furlongs. Shotover was first choice at even money, with 2 to 1 on Manhattan and long odds offered against others. Tom Kearns was given two lengths the better of the start, Manhattan second. Manhattan captured the lead, and he won a good race by half a length, Tom Kearns second, and Shotover the favorite, a close third, and running splendidly. Consigue, Bob Swin, Leta, Not Gully, and Blue Blue also ran. Time, 1:17. Mutuels paid $9.15.

The programme fixed for yesterday will be run on Monday, and on Tuesday there will be an extra day's racing. There has been some talk of continuing the meeting beyond Tuesday, but no definite conclusion on the subject had been reached last night.

Races at Guttenberg.

GUTTENBERG, N. J., April 5.—First race—Five-eighths of a mile. Dan Lassie won, The Bourbon second. Time, 1:03. Second race—Three-quarters of a mile. Iago won, Paradise second. Time, 1:19. Third race—Seven-eighths of a mile. Thad Rowe won, Oarsman second. Time, 1:31. Fourth race—Six and one-half furlongs. Fitzroy won, King Hazen second. Time, 1:25. Fifth race—1 1/4 miles. Recho won, Bella second. Time, 2:02. Sixth race—Seven furlongs. King Idler won, Crispin second. Time, 1:33.

Frank E. Lewis Murdered.

OMAHA, Neb., April 5.—A young Indian, named Eagle Horse, yesterday afternoon shot and instantly killed Frank E. Lewis, a school teacher, at Pine Ridge Agency, and then committed suicide. Lewis was going home from school on horseback, when Eagle Horse stepped out from an ambush and shot him in the back of the head. After committing the murder Eagle Horse met some other Indians, to whom he said he felt that he was going to die and wanted the white man to go with him. He then shot himself.

[Mr. Lewis was the son of Rev. J. Vaughn Lewis of this city.]

SENATORIAL CONFERENCE.

Silver, National Elections, and Anti-Trust Legislation Discussed.

About two-thirds of the Republican Senators met in conference last night at the residence of Senator Chandler to discuss the silver question. The Western Senators, known as silver men, had the floor at first and explained their views at length. When the representatives of other sections expressed themselves, no marked preference for the Windom bill, as against the Jones bill (reported by the Senate Committee on Finance) was shown. It was the general opinion that the Republican Congressmen should harmonize upon some measure of legislation on the silver question and press it to a passage as early a date as possible.

The action of the Republican members of the Committee on Privileges and Elections in requesting Chairman Hoar to prepare a national election law is understood to have met the approval of the conference.

When it was reported back from the Judiciary Committee Senator Edmunds said he would call it up immediately after the Montana case was concluded.

THE BISHOP'S PLAIN TALK.

Methodist Ministers Should Not Sit on the Fence.

NEW YORK, April 5.—At the M. E. Conference to-day Bishop Goodsell in his address said ministers should not sit on the fence waiting to make up their minds which way to go. Politicians were expedient. They said one thing and meant another. Methodists had no business to resort to such measures. The liquor traffic was roundly denounced. The Methodist Church, Bishop Goodsell said, had no favors to ask from the liquor interests.

It was eminently proper that the Methodist Church should take the lead in labor questions, as it was a church nearest the people; in fact, it was of the people and was for all classes. The bishop was applauded in regard to the progressive policy of the church and its attitude toward the liquor traffic.

At the evening session Dr. Kynott, who became prominent during the Harrison-Cleveland campaign in Pennsylvania, presided, and he and Clinton B. Fisk, of New Jersey, spoke in favor of prohibition.

JERSEY BALLOT-BOX FRAUDS.

Sixty Warrants Issued For Implicated Election Officers.

JERSEY CITY, N. J., April 5.—As a result of the disclosures made before the special committee of the State Senate that is investigating the ballot-box fraud in this city at the election last November, sixty warrants were issued to-day for persons alleged to be implicated in the frauds.

Twelve arrests were made. All those arrested were election officers. Eight are Democrats and four Republicans. The accused are Thomas T. Otter, Jacob Moschell, Thomas Fallon, James Hart, Thomas Durabey, John Farrant, George Heller, Thomas Nelson, Charles H. Scott, Joseph H. Buckridge, Oscar L. Friberg, and Harry Speers. The complaints were made by J. T. Altemus, who is in the employ of the State committee. It is charged that the election officers were engaged in a conspiracy, and that they accepted ballots from persons who were not entitled to vote. The persons arrested were admitted to bail to await the action of the grand jury. More arrests will be made on Monday.

Mrs. Parnell to be Relieved.

BORDENTOWN, N. J., April 5.—There is a movement on foot in Trenton to render some kind of assistance to Mrs. Della S. Parnell. Old ironies, the home of Mrs. Parnell, is heavily encumbered, her friends here offering her temporary relief, but something more must be done, and the Trenton people propose to do it.

THREE FOOLISH MAIDENS.

Saved by the Police From a Dive, They Spend the Night in the Station-House.

Three well-dressed and handsome girls, the oldest not over seventeen, were noticed by Officers Golway, Barney, and Oriani, about 1 o'clock this morning, on Pennsylvania avenue, in the company of three well-known characters. The officers followed the party to one of the all-night dives on the south side of Pennsylvania avenue, near Thirteenth street, and placed the girls under arrest as they were about to enter.

The girls were entire strangers to the place, and claim South Washington as their residence. They said they had been to a dancing school on Seventh street, where Saturday evening soirees are held, and coming down Seventh street the men joined them and stayed with them all the evening. The girls did not know the character of the house to which the men were conducting them, and if they had they would not have gone to it.

At the station-house Sergeant Boyle turned the girls over to the matron, and for over an hour the trio sat in the matron's room crying and wringing their hands and begging the officers to keep the disgrace from their mothers. The young men who had been with the girls decamped. At an early hour this morning the girls were escorted home by officers.

LOCAL GOSSIP.

—The bill to prevent fraudulent transactions on the part of commission merchants and other consignment of goods in the District of Columbia was passed by the Senate yesterday.

—The Senate yesterday passed the bill to amend section 224 of the Revised Statutes relating to the District of Columbia by giving the Commissioners power to lay water mains, pipes, hydrants, etc.

—Maj. Costello wishes all his friends many happy Easters. He extends to all a cordial welcome at his New York Buffet, Tenth street, just above D street northwest.

—Pending the completion of their new store at Ninth street and Pennsylvania avenue, Messrs. D. & B. have removed their ladies' department to 923 Ninth street northwest, and their mens' department to 1411 Pennsylvania avenue, adjoining Willard's Hotel.

—The Carroll Institute recently appointed a committee to make arrangements for the convention of the Catholic Young Men's National Union, to be held here in October. This committee has organized by electing H. W. Sohan, Chairman, N. P. Taylor, Secretary, and N. H. Shea, Treasurer.

—The cases of C. A. Newton, President, and J. J. Varner, Treasurer of the Old Dominion Republican League, who are charged with violating the civil service law by soliciting campaign contributions, came up in the Police Court yesterday. The counsel for defendants were not ready to go to trial, and a postponement was had until Wednesday next.

—Persons using stationery, wrapping paper, twines, paper bags, and needing any kind of job printing or engraving, should not fail to have prices submitted to them by Mr. Robert E. Clarke, 920 F street northwest, who represents the Central Printing House, of New York. A saving of twenty to twenty-five per cent. can be had by buying of this firm.

—The millinery establishment of Mrs. M. A. Whiting, at 518 Tenth street northwest, might have been compared to a beehive last week, she having notified the ladies that Monday and Tuesday would be her opening days, and those days and the remainder of the week were busy ones. Many of the hats and bonnets worn today by the fair sex came from the parlors of the above establishment.

—It is not necessary to praise the standing and reputation of Mrs. Selma Rupert's ladies' and children's furnishing establishment, 608 Ninth street northwest, as every lady knows she keeps a full assortment of everything in her line. To mention the many novelties that will be exhibited at her spring opening Monday and during the week, would be next to an impossibility, as her assortment was never larger and more complete.

—For some time past frequent complaints have been made of the practice of certain horse dealers who, in fact, Louisiana avenue and Tenth street. Yesterday Officer J. F. Green, and made them leave collateral at the First Precinct for their appearance Monday in the Police Court.

—The rare sight of boys swimming in Rock Creek was witnessed yesterday by pedestrians crossing the P street Bridge. There were a number of the small urchins disporting themselves until Officer Hess, of the Seventh Precinct, made his appearance and caused a stampede. A car containing a couple coming from office was crossing the bridge, and the spectacle of naked urchins with their arms full of clothes running toward them caused a sensation.

—One meets a surprising number of people who wear the "Crawford" shoes. The business of the makers, Messrs. Bourve, Crawford & Co., is really a national one. Their factories at Brockton, Mass., are kept running to the fullest capacity by the remarkable popularity of the shoes. They are sold in six stores in Boston, where the company's headquarters are, and there are twenty branch stores scattered over the country. The Washington branch, at 903 Pennsylvania avenue, presided over by Mr. George Noble, is a model shoe store, and, by its cheery appearance and the cleverness of the clerks, would attract purchasers, even if the Crawford shoes were not so extremely desirable as they are. Scores of people are used to pay $10 or $12 for custom-made shoes, have seen their mistake, and now buy Crawford shoes that are better and cost but a quarter or half as much.
